Society Dances at Block Party in Southampton

Booths for Sale of Refreshments Along Street-Large Gallery at Tennis Game.

Second to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., Aug. 24 .- Something out of the ordinary in the way of an entertainment was given here tonight. It was a block party organized ish Main street, between the Southamptern and First National banks, was sentenced and the shops and houses in that section were illuminated, while on the asphalt there was general dancing util well past midnight. A band came Royal Air Force, will be the pilot.

Mrs. Robert Gould Shaw gave a children from Camp Upton and Riverhead, and all First National banks, was of refreshments. No one was permitted to enter the enclosure who did not subtit to being tagged for at least 50 cents.

Many of the summer residents entered old the tagging. Mr. Henry H. Rogers and Mr. E. Stewart Davis were members still others agreed to organize units in

There was a large gallery at the Mandow Club for the second day's play the tennis tournament. The costumes of the young women were particularly triking, tones of burnt orange and yelow predominating. Gowns of these combinations of colors were worn by Misses Millicent Rogers and Katherine

In addition to the numerous entertainments previously arranged for the ten-me players, Mr and Mrs. Charles E. Mitchell will give for them a luncheor

Many Parties at Games.

Among those watching the games today were Mrs. Frederic H. Betts, Mrs. bert Waller and Mrs. Joel B. Erhardt, to were in one group. Mme. Slavko Greatch came for a brief stay in the morning with Mrs. Walter R. Tuckeran before leaving with her husband visit with Mr. Franklin McVeagh Dublin, N. H. Others on the veranda re Mr. and Mrs. Theron R. Strong, Misses Lydia Dadmun, Joan Whitney and Cornella Robb; Mr. and Mrs. J. Couper Lord, Mrs. Rawson L. Wood, Miss Ruth Moller, Mrs. Charles R. Henderson, Miss Janet Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunter Brown, Mr. F. L. Hol-Henry Coster, Miss Martha Coster, Dr. George A. Dixon, Mrs. Charles E. Mitchell, Mrs. Grosvenor Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. James Cummings Barr, Miss Eleanor Hoover, Mr. Fairfax S. Landstreet, Jr., Mr. Ashbel H. Barney, who drs. Vincent S. Mulford, Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence Breese, Mrs. Arthur B. Claffin, Mrs. Henry G. Trevor, who ame with her hostess, Mrs. Charles E. filler; Mr. and Mrs. H. Rogers Winthrop, Mrs. Joseph R. Dilworth and

Mrs. Robert Waller gave a luncheon to-day at the Meadow Club for her grand nlees, Miss Mary Sheffield, and a party of twenty girls who are not yet out in so-twenty girls who senty girls who are not yet out in so-ety. To-morrow Mrs. Charles R. Henr her granddaughter, Miss Cornella Robb, who arrived yesterday from Locust the fact that she incurred heavy debts through starting a rabbit breeding eshave fifty guests and Mr. and Mrs. Her-man D. Kountzs, who are having dinner for their daughter. Miss Elizabeth 000. Her assets include a claim for will take place on September 15 at Kauf-Kountze, and her friend, Miss Joan Whit- £25,000 against the estate of her late ney, have asked thirty guests.

The Berkshires.

Senator and Mrs. John Stewart Mc-Lennan gave a dinner at Ashintuily, in ingham, last night for Lady Maud Angus Muckintosh, who was wounded in terials.

embroidered effects.

Newport Party Plans Flying Trip to Southampton

Mrs. Vincent Astor and Mrs. H. P. Russell to Be Among Passengers.

Special to THE BUN AND NEW YORK HERALD NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 24 .- Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Russell, Dr. Thomas A. Le Breton, the Argentine Ambassador, and Dr. Felipe A memorial, which is the gift to the town leave here to-morrow for Narragansett of Messrs. Samuel L. and James C. Par- Pier, where they will take an aerial express to Southampton, L. I., for the port on September 15 for the autumn.

two young sons.

The part which the artists will take i the artists' ball was discussed at a largely attended tea on Monday after-Robert R. Kendrick, and Miss Myra Ben-bett headed a committee of fifty girls who posters to advertise the ball, others will posters to advertise the ball, others will furnish sketches for decorations, and of the committee and Mr. Frank A. Burling was in charge of the music and style of costumes at the ball. Mrs. William Cotton was added to the dance

FASHION SHOW OPEN AT RITZ-CARLTON

Eleven Prize Winning Designs on Exhibition.

The fifth fashion show of the Shelton Looms opened yesterday in the Ritz-Carlton Hotel under the auspices of Alexander Grean with eleven prize winning designs on exhibition. The latest pile fabrics in velvets and plushes are utilized in these designs, the judges con the design, style, workmanship and salability in awarding the prizes. Among the designers represented are Mr. Grean, Hickson and Bergdors & Good-

To-day and to-morrow the show will be open to the trade, and Friday will be "consumers" day. Tickets for Friday may be obtained at any of the departstores. The first fashion show was held in the roof garden of the Hotel Astor in 1910, also under the auspices

BARONESS DECIES IN BANKRUPTCY COURT

Liabilities of Widow of Fourth Baron Put at 27,000 Pounds.

fourth Baron Decies and a sister-in-law Governor-General of Canada until after of the present holder of the title, the tion before which he is to be the control of the title, the tion before which he is to be the control of the title, the tion before which he is to be the control of the title, the title tion before which he is to be the control of the title fifth Baron Decies, who married Miss were due to large sums of money she lent to her brother, the late Sir John Willoughby of Matabele fame, and to the fact that she incurred heavy debts parties at the club on Saturday tablishment in West End. Added to brother, which, it is believed probably will yield only nine cents for each pound sterling.

The second day of the tennis tourna-Muckintosh of London, who has been ment on the Homestead courts was notable for the steady playing of Mr. Alexandria Bay. Lady Mand is the daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Dunlop and the brilliant net work of onshire. She is the widow of Capt. Mr. Ezra Gould, who doubled with Miss. Louise Ross Todd, defeating Mr. J. Morwar and died later of pneumonia in ris Wistar and Miss Frances Hampthe war and died later of pneumonia in Washington while Military Attache of the British Embassy.

Mrs. Joseph H. Choate had a dinner party last night at Naumkeag, in Stockbridge, for Mrs. Theodore Eldridge of tus J. Wade, Jr., and Miss Elmore Hams, 6—1, 6—2 Mr. Frank Akera and Miss Lemoine beat Mr. Feshbridge, for Mrs. Theodore Eldridge of tus J. Wade, Jr., and Miss Ellnor Simmons of this city last Science. ridge, for Mrs. Theodore Eldridge of the Land Mrs. Theodore Eldridge of the Land Mrs. Ellinor Simmons of this city last Saturday at Bright, 6—2, 6—3. Dr. J. M. Quinn noon in the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. Butzer officiating, Mr. Simmons of the Rev. Dr. Butzer officiating Mr. is atopping with Mrs. Royal Whitman in | Charles L. Borie, Jr., and Miss Sidney

J.M. Gidding & Co. 564-566 And 568 Fifth Avenue, 9 46 ! Ang 47 !! STS.

Final Clean-up Sales!

Regardless of former cost or value we are offering the balance of our present stocks for immediate disposal to make room for Fall and Winter Fashions-

About One Hundred and Fifty

Handsome Coats and Wraps

Fashionable daytime styles of duvetyn, tricotine, twill, jersey and trico-

Regularly $95 to $295 at $50-$85-$125

An Odd Group of Remaining Sport Coats

REGULARLY $75 TO $125 AT $25-$35-$45

Smart Tailored Suits

A final regrouping of desirable models suitable for early Fall wear-

Finely tailored street styles in tricotine, twill, tweed and novelty ma-

REGULARLY $85 TO $225 AT $45-$65-8$5

Day and Evening Gowns

A wide variety of styles suitable for all manner of occasions developed in soft crepe satin, Georgette crepe, taffeta, lace, tulle and net. Stunning tailored models in twill, serge and tricotine, including handsome

REGULARLY $125 TO $250 AT $65-$85 TO $125

lette, suitable for wear now or during the early Autumn-

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

New York.

The Hon, and Mrs. Cecil Campbell, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Williams, in Southampton, L. I., will start next Saturday for their home in England on board the

Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Le Roy Edgar. who are travelling in Italy, will return to New York late in September.

and Mrs. James B. Duke will go o their house at Somerville, N. J., from Newport for the autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Huntington who are in France, will remain abroad

Mr. and Mrs. Middleton S. Burrill have left Jericho, L. I., for a tour of the coun-

Miss Margaret Jefferys Hobart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Hobart the Rev. George B. Myers, dean of Holy Trinity Cathedral, Havana, Cuba, on the Many of the summer residents entered noon at the Art Association, attended morning of October 2 in St. Luke's by the officials of the association and the Church, Easthampton, L. I. Miss Elizaerons were sold at auction by Judge artists who have studios in Newport, beth Peirce of Palo Alto, Cal., will be beth Peirce of Palo Alto, Cal. will be parents.

> Mrs. Moses Taylor Campbell of 77 Madison avenue is at the Hotel Irving, Southampton, L. I., for the remainder of Miss Alma Ciarke will be the chief attendant at the marriage of her sister, Miss Beatrice Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shields Clarke, to Mr. George C. T. Remington on September 4 in Trinity Church, Lenox, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornellus C. Lee have eturned to their place in Tuxedo Park from the Thousand Islands.

Miss Helen Krech daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Krech, and her finance, Mr. L. Stuart Wing, will pass Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Curtiss James at Beacon Hill House, Newport,

Mrs. Charles de Loosey Oelrichs, who was visiting friends in Saratoga Springs, has returned to Newport and will be at her cottage in Gibbs avenue for the remainder of the season

Mrs. Frank McLaughlin of Brook House, Pelham Manor, has arrived by automobile at the Aspinwall, Lenox, Mass., from New London, Conn., where she was with her daughter, Mrs. Drelincourt M. Martin.

Washington.

Louis, where he started for yesterday to address the American Bar Association, he British Ambassador, the Br. Louis, where he started for yesterday to interior political stability. With this condition how can the condition had been conditionally as the conditional Auckland Geddes, will go to Canada to people? It was a fine gesture of social remain until September 5. In Toronto on and national solidarity when the rich Friday he will be made a life member of land owner gave up his ground to the the Toronto Great War Veterans. From London, Aug. 24—The examination day stay and on August 31 he will arin bankruptcy of Maria Gertrude, rive in Ottawa to be a guest of the Baroness Decles, the widow of the Governor-General of Canada until after tion, before which he is to speak.

> Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Wells gave dinner at the Chevy Chase Club on Mon-Salvador, and Col. and Mrs. Aifred T.

> Representative and Mrs. James Young

Capt. Middleton Elliot, Medical Corps. U. S. N., and Mrs. Elliot and their a month, where I will rejoin my regidaughter, Miss Caryl M. Elliot, have gone ment, which I left before going to Japan, the Rev. Dr. Butzer officiating. Mr. Simmons is an Assistant United States At-

PRINCE PRAISES U. S. Prince Carol of Rumania. RELIEF TO RUMANIA

Tells of Country's Progress and Invites Americans to Visit.

The Crown Prince Carol of Rumania broke the silence be has maintained since his arrival here Monday in a statement he gave out last night in the Waldorf-Astoria, where he is occupying the Presidential suite. The Prince has refused Mr. and Mrs. William Goadby Loew to be interview on the ground his visit and the Misses Florence and Evelyn here is wholly unefficial. He passed Locw will go to Roslyn, L. I., from New- the day quietly, remaining in his rooms until late in the afternoon, when he drove up to the Winchester Arms Company, at Portieth street and Fifth avenue, and urchased several sporting rifles and 2,000 rounds of ammunition. In the ever-ning, with his suite, he went to the Hip-of emotion to his marriage to Mme Zizi Lambrino, the twenty-year-old daughter of a Rumanian army officer, and the subsequent annulment by his royal

"I do not care to bring up past sor-rows," he said. "The incident is closed, and I only look forward to the discharge of my duties as Crown Prince of Rumania and heir to the throne."

Prince Carol said that while his present visit to the United States was only an informal and unofficial one he intended to pay an official and longer visit some time later. He probably will return to this country next spring with his mother, Queen Marie.

"I am very much impressed by the beauty and charm of the American women and by the tall buildings," he "They are wonderful." Prince Carol spoke with warm appre ciation of the work done for his country by the American Red Cross and relief disalons, and expressed pleasure at finding many friends of Roumania in this beace," ubled, the population has grown from .500,000 to nearly 20,000,000. We must all work to bring back its wealth. Economically, our country has suffered tion was practically wiped out. Everyhing the enemy desired he took, from the locomotive to the last shirt of the who has suffered and the peasants are the principal part of our population. They have become the greatest factor of the country through the two great the air was clear of talk, however, there reforms-universal suffrage and the ivision of the land.

peasant, who tilled it. Here, as always, "Rumania is a country which has so become one of the richest of Europe. We have oil in profusion, large forests, min-eral salt, natural gas and other minerals which will allow us to develop a large industry and commerce. Every Ruma-day for Mr. Peter Augustus Jay, the nian feels that he must put all of his newly appointed American Minister to energy to this work and we welcome every aid which a friendly hand will give us. I can only encourage Americans to ome over and see us and thus to know us. We have no aggressive intentions Invitations are out for two large through starting a rabbit breeding espective and Mrs. James Young us. We have no aggressive intentions a parties at the club on Saturday tablishment in West End. Added to Mrs. George Q. Whitney will this was the expense of running a house ty guests and Mr. and Mrs. Her-liabilities are estimated at f27.

Kountzs, who are having dinner Her liabilities are estimated at f27.

Wills Point, that State. The wedding rights on our frontiers. A proof of our time we always know how to defend our politan hearing. intentions of maintaining these is our in the musical comedy, is leveliest in

> "I hope to be back in Rumania within to Atlantic City to visit Mrs. Edmond and I expect to work with all my energy Rhett of Baltimore at her cottage at for the future prosperity of Rumania."
>
> Despite the Prince's desire to go about The marriage of Miss Alice Edith Bur-bage, daughter of Mrs. William D. Bur-bage, to Mr. Hugo William Hasselbach and going. As he was leaving the Wintook place yesterday afternoon at the chester Arms Company a young woman residence of the bride's mother. pressed forward and said, "I am a Ru-nanian, your Royal Highness."

"How do you do?" asked the Prince. "I knew you when you were a bo in short trousers," she continued. The Prince nodded and smiled, shool hands, said, "I'm very glad to have met you," and made for his automobile.

RUMANIAN ENVOY SAILS.

Financial Expert Was Here Two

Months on Secret Mission. After two months here on a mission manian Ministry of Finance, sailed for play conceived by Lee Francis Lybarger home yesterdsy aboard the Lloyd Saddid not seem to have been diminished, to baudo liner Re D'Italia, which left the foot of West Fifty-fifth street for Nathanian in the audience had to wait ples, Constantinople and Constanza, on a long line for seats. Rumania, with 1,300 passengers.

interests in the great Rumanian oil Henry Fortune, money autocrat. One fields.

The secretary-general sailed after the fortunes of Fortune, while the lunching with Prince Carol of Rumanis other, a dreamer, spurns to get "somein the Waldorf-Astoria. Bidding him thing for nothing," as he puts it, and to goodby was John C. Koree, Rumanian right the world by putting into effect

OUEEN OF RUMANIA

Meeting Revives Rumor of Daughter's Engagement.

The Queen of Rumania yesterday visited appear are stirring. The story, however Brooklyn. He was an authorit; on former King Constantine of Greece, who seems overlong in getting under way and tropical fish. Two daughters survive occasionally wanders. Such an unso-him. ceeded to Zurich, where her daughter, phisticated creature as a blind girl, Princes Elizabeth, is staying.

Press there was nothing official concern-ing the reported engagement of Princess grandfather. J. H. Gilmore played this Elizabeth to the Duke of Sparta, his part as well as could be expected. Willeldest son and brother of King Alex-ander of Greece. He added, however, that "events may happen." iam Nigh, who was also the director, was a dreamer, and Leslie Austin the other brother. Miss Elsie De Wolfe was Princess Elizabeth of Rumania in the last few years has been reported betrothed to a number of European princes. Rumore that she was to marry Prince George of Greece, Duke of Sparta, have been the most persistent in these re-

Skating House for Central Park. Francis D. Gallatin, Park Commissioner for Manhattan, announced yesterday that his department has prepared wife, one of the dancing favorities of Budaplans for a new skating house in Central pest several years ago, has been added to Park. The cost of the structure is estimated at $199,000. He will ask the mated at $100,000. He will ask the Board of Estimate for an appropriation at the and of the summer recess.

Mrs. A. G. Lansing of the Hotel Hargrave is on an automobile tour through Maine and Nova Scotia. She will return to New York in September.

New Author Gets Hearing for His 'Immodest Violet

William A. Brady gave, at the Fortyighth Street Theatre yesterday afterof his profession, but he soon proved ought to make any playwright successful. He has at his command, so far as he said, "the country has his first specimen of dramatic writing and an originality of view which are refreshing in their departure from pre

Mr. Carb made his first mistakes and his worst mistakes in the opening act Every personage that entered had a ong recital of facts, which, importan as they were to an appreciation of the drama, had no place in the mouths of the characters they concerned. After was a pretty scene between dacious heroine and the shy bookkeeper purpose of borrowing $10 to attend a how can the pernicious idea suffrage club. There was a still pretder scene of babes in the woods sim-plicity when the two had been expelled the indignant household ested on the river bank. More broadly musing was the arrival of the young oman's indignant family and ero's slighted betrothed.

vailing standards of comedy in the the-

Violation of the Mann act was the charge on which his deserted flances got him. The trial which made up the final act was intensely amusing. Mr. Carb has laid his play in Texas and Okia-home, so the brand of humor was Southwestern in its extravagance and ver-sosity. There is nowhere in the handling of the scenes the touch of professional ertainty. That quality may come with experience, however, while the other qualifications that Mr. Carb reveals for his profession could never be acquired by any amount of practice. Mr. Brady die a service to the American theatre when e gave the young playwright a metr

Miss Marie Goff, like the young woman suffrages of any human jury. She has charm and intelligence, but the playing of the long trial scene was a severe strain on her artistic resources. Kenneth Mac-Kenna gave a most engaging portrait of the simple youth who fell her happy vic-John Cromwell was amusing as verbose district attorney, and Miss Eda Heineman gave a realistic study of ments of Southwestern types were furnished by Miss Florence Gerald, Miss Marle Haynes, Louis Frohoff and Henry

BOLSHEVISM HIT BY 'DEMOCRACY' IN FILM

New Photoplay Woven on Conflict Between Brothers.

Bolshevism was not only pounded or the Pollsh front, it was badly hit on the Casino Theatre back last night with said to be of the greatest importance to "Democracy, the Vision Restored." the Rumanian Government, Constantin However, extremist views before the Jonescu, secretary-general of the Rumanian Ministry of Finance, sailed for play conceived by Lee Francis Lybarger umania, with 1,300 passengers.

Although Mr. Jonescu said the nature original scenario by Nina Wilcox Putof his errand must be kept secret for a nam, is not concerned entirely with time, it was understood that it conpropaganda. It is woven upon the concerned the strengthening of American flict of two brothers, grandsons of the fortunes of Fortune, while the Lybarger's thesis that "It is not armies but ideas that rule the world."

In the course of the struggle between VISITS CONSTANTINE the powers of light and darkness represented by the brothers there are scene of violence and tempestuous emotions. In the end virtuous democracy triumphs. Lybarger incidentally seeks to emphasize the lesson that industrial autocracy is as bad as militaristic or capitalistic autocracy.

The scenes in which multitudes of men played by pretty Miss Maurine Travers Constantine to-day told the Associated seems rather incredible, as does such a the latter's discarded wife.

Notes From the Theatres.

The opening of "Paddy the Next Best Thing" at the Schubert Theatre has been postponed from to-night to next Friday night.

for early production a new musical play, "Love Mad," with more by Harry von Tilger. Mr. Fields' next production will be "Wild Women of 19 and 20,"

Gen. Robert Alexander, Gen. Daniel C. Roper and Admiral James H. Glennon attended last evening's performance of "Good Times" at the Hippodrome. Births Engagements Marriages Annulments

Maine and Nova Scotta. She will return to New York in September.

With a three act play.

with a three act play.

with a three act play.

The sale of seats for the premiere of "Little Miss Charity" at the Belmont Theaton of 1 West Sixty-eighth street.

morrow morning.

'Happy-Go-Lucky,' Ian Hay's Comedy, Is Full of Charm

O. P. Heggie Has Triumph in Role of Bailiff at the

Booth. BOOTH THEATRE— HAPPY GO-LUCKY," comedy, by Ian Hay.
Abet Mainwaring. George Giddens
Lady Mary. Mrs. Edmund Gurney George GiddensMrs. Edmund Curney Barry Baxter Miss Maxine Macdonald Sylvia Lucius Welwyn. Mrs. Welwyn. Tilly. Amelia Welwyn. Percy. Grandres

Hyde-Woods with his bathing girls, boudoirs and limousines, but Dr. Jekyll-Woods of "Too Many Husbands" and a in the struggling island republic he few other similar dramatic adventures of happy memory. It was said in the theatre that the play, as "Tilly of Bloomsbury," had enjoyed long popular-ity in London. The audience, however, was grateful for its pleasure, whatever he source of it.

Mr. Hay is a bit reactionary in the selection of his slight fiction. The play oon, the first of two performances of deals with the conflict of class, which colleagues before Mr. Hay began to write novels or plays. The girl is undeniably of the masses. The youth as him, he began trensferring public funds certainly of a class in which caste is to the Banco Nacional de Santo Domingo supposed to impart the secrets of this still recognized and, indeed, cultivated. Mr. Hay's story, it will be seen, is, if serviceable, more or less threadbare. So July special knowledge of the technical side This in Mr. Hay's case is the adornment of witty speech and recognizable drawn out affair. On September 39, humor in character. And because the 1914, Joseph Tumulty, President Wilplaywright follows the example of certain eminent Victorians and seems to exaggerate the peculiarities of his figures, he will be flattered by the suggestion of a resemblance to Dickens, of which any playwright of the day ought in Dublin after that. to be proud.

women that carry on the story plausible was arrested by the British authorities grounds at times for the analogy. There for taking part in the Irish demonstra are the putler temporarily turned bailiff tions inspired by Sir Roger Casement and pretending not to be an actor; the He subsequently was released. lodging house keeper of English drama neering wife on the aristocratic wing of America when quite young and grew up the story and the subdued husband. All in Brooklyn. He became a reporter these incidental figures surround the high sporting events for a newspaper in W spirited lover and his gentle heroine, who terbury, Conn., and became press agen always keep the love of the public and then promoter of athletic meets and whether their names be Montague or exhibitions. He entered Yale and studied Capulet, Eccles or d'Alroy. So Mr. Hay law, graduating in 1902. He first prac-Capulet, Eccles or d'Alroy. So Mr. Hay law, graduating in 1902. He first prac-won his success not through the newness of what he had to offer in story or style but by his witty, good humored less well known as a lawyer for Tam way of revealing mankind's little weak-many young men who became embroile with the law.

truly in accordance with the spirit of publicity work for a sporting exhibition Victorian emphasis in humor that they only stopped this side of burlesque. This was true of Mr. Hoggie, who acted the significant Lieut. Charles Becker, the police bailiff with the most delicious sense of official executed for the murder of Herfun in the character, and Mr. Hector, lly all the peculierities of the bounder brother of the heroine. Mr. Heggie enloved an uncommon triumph. He was in his own field again, and he must have felt at home after his erring and extravagant adventures in such fields os French chevaliers and Corsican

Mass Gypsy O'Brien gave a piquant sketch of an English gentlewoman and Miss Muriel Nartin Harvey's fragile beauty was well suited to the character of the sympathetic heroine. George Giddens, Miss Nellie Hodson, Barry Baxter. Government has presented for approval of Parliament the peace treatles.

In the inusical comedy, is lovellest in Miss Rights Daly, Oswald Yorke and Lost—Black 'travelling bag, of Parliament the peace treatles.

Mrs. Edmund Gurney were some of the matching her eyes, would have won the other solidary and the company of the matching her eyes, would have won the other solidary and the company of t other skilful actors who bore their part in a delightful evening.

Mr. Woods seems always to put his best foot forward at the Booth Theatre.

REVIVAL FOR "BEN HUR." Drama to Be Presented at Manhattan Opera House October 23. An announcement of unusual interest Is that A. L. Erlanger's first important presentation for the new season will be a brand new production of "Ben Hur," that staple theatrical product, now more than twenty years old, at the Manhattan Opera House on October 23.

So he has taxing a lease of the big.

than twenty years old, at the Manhattan
Opera House on October 23.
So he has taken a lease of the big playhouse in West Thirty-fourth street
for the purpose of exhibiting it.

Mr. Erlanger also will present others 12472.

LOST—In Coney Island bus, lady's blue taffet unbrella. Tel. Main 4639W, after 6:30 P. M. reward.
LOST—Burch of keys. Liberal reward for return 36 Grand st., store.

have the role of Messala; Leslie Stowe, Simonides; Harry Cowan, Molluch; Berrard Savage, Drusus; Cassius C. Quim-by, Sanballet; Miss Mildred Bright, Rather; Miss Virginia Howell, Iras; Miss Marie Condon as the hero's mother, Miss Stella Boniface Weaver, Amrah, and Miss Ruth Carlton, Tirzah.

Princess Loses Chinese Puppy. Princess Golitzine, who before her Princess Golitzine, who before her LOST-Wrist watch, black ribbon, Saturday, marriage here a year ago to a son of the last Prime Minister of Russia was Miss ward. Write KEEPSAKE, Observer, Hobo-

OBITUARIES.

it had been temporarily placed,

CHRISTIAN JULIUS HEEDE. Funeral services were held last night for Christian Julius Heede, who founded the Brooklyn Aquarium Society fourteen years ago. Mr. Heede died Sunday at his home, 166 South Elliott place. Brooklyn. He was an authority on

Mrs. D. C. Coleman Is Drowned. WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 24.-Mrs. D. C. Coleman, wife of the vice president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was drowned yesterday at Windermere, B. C., where she was spending a vaca-tion. Mr. Coleman received word of the tragedy to-day. Mrs. Coleman got be-yond her depth, the message said. W. K. Vanderbilt's Body Due.

The body of William K. Vanderbilt The body of William R. Vanderbilt will arrive to-day on the Olympic of the White Star line and will be taken to the Vanderbilt home at 660 Fifth avenue, Funeral services will be held there at 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Only relatives and a few intimate friends will be present. Mrs. Vanderbilt is accombined to the property of Play. Plizer 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Only "Wild relatives and a few intimate friends will be present. Mrs. Vanderbilt is accompanying her husband's body back from

NOTICES OF:

Memorials Confirmations may be telephoned for publica-tion in THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD any time up to midnight for the next day's issue. Call Fitzroy 6000.

Deaths

JAMES M. SULLIVAN IS DEAD IN IRELAND

Tammany Lawyer Quit Under Charges as Minister to Santo Domingo.

James M. Sullivan, President Wilson's first Minister to Santo Domingo and who Eugle, Kate D. William P. Willox, Stannard A. resigned under charges of exploiting the dled last week on his estate in Ireland. The despatch announcing the end of Mr. Sullivan's stormy life bore no details. concerning the causes of his death.

Mr. Sullivan, cousin of the late Timothy J. Sullivan, the Tammany bess of "Happy-Go-Lucky" is the title of an former days, was a New York lawyer altogether charming little comedy by who received the Santo Domingo post be then Secretary of State, he was "one of last night at the Booth Theatre. This, the descretary of State, he was "one of the description o nomination to the post was contested, and almost directly after he took charge of the diplomatic offices for this country embroiled with Walker Whiting Vick, the general receiver of Dominican cus-toms Mr. Vick resigned after writing a series of letters to President Wilson and to Mr. Bryan charging that Mr. Sullivan was using his post to enrich his banking and contractor friends, and both the Dominicans and those Americans who ought to create sound government

Santo Domingo were suffering He was appointed Minister on August 12, 1913, and arrived in the island six weeks later. Almost immediately, according to the charges preferred against and to hold conference; with friends who Santo Domingo, but did not resign until a year later. The inquiry was a long son's secretary, announced that former Gov. Fort of New Jersey had investi-gated the charges against Sullivan and found them groundless. Sullivan, having married an Irish heiress, made his home

In Ireland he attached himself to the There is in the string of men and Sinn Fein movement and in May, 1916

Mr. Sullivan was born in Killarne sporting events for a newspaper in Wa

It was while Mr. Sullivan was doing attorney when the latter agreed to bein Attorney Whitman Becker and the four gunmen.

LOST AND FOUND.

AUTOMORILE STOLEN.
REWARD.
Oakland touring, 1317, new closed body, car or motor number 35234, original paint, bumper front and rear, spotlight left side, license N. Y. 205590, stolen Fifth av. and 116th st. August 23. Communicate with E. B. HOFWOOD, 55 John st., New York city. Telephone Beekman 8987.

LOST-Sliver purse in Jersey City station containing $18 in money, gold bug pin and ticket to New York and Matewan. Reward if returned to 87 Broad st., Freehold, New LOST-About 2nd st. and 7th av black patent leather purse containing about $12 in each check and commutation tickets to Hohokus, N. J. Return to WOOD'S PARCEL ROOM, Hudson Tube and 3nd st: reward.

for the purpose of exhibiting it.

Mr. Erlanger also will present others of his larger productions at the Manhattan Opera House, but his plans will not interfere with those made by Mrs. Oscar Hammerstein for that theatre.

Robert W. Fraser again will be seen as Ben Hur. William Wagner will seen as Ben Hur. William Wagner will be seen as Ben Hur. William will be seen as Ben Hur. Wil

Jewelry.

LIBERAL REWARD.

Platinum wrist watch, set in diamonds and sapphires, initials "F. E. B." in taxt, 130 W. 45th to 417 Park av. Mrs. BROOKS, care G. D. Stewart. Plaza 4239. Care G. T. Stewart. Plana 2200.
LOET-Two gold vanity boxes, duil gold octagon shape; rold lorgenettes on chain in ladies' room, Hotel Traymore; Atlantic City, Saturday evening. Return to Lost and Found Department, Hotel Traymore, Reward

Frances Simpson Stevens, is sad. One of the five little Chinese pupples she brought from Hong Kong, arriving Friday by the Prince Persian after a ninety day sea voyage, disappeared Saturday from Duriand's Riding Academy, where LOST-Eunday afternoon, ladies' gold mesh bag on Long Beach road, LANE, 523 West 133d st., apt. 19: reward.

LOST-Long dinner ring, 23 stones; near 25d st.; reward. South 3336. 23d st.; reward. South 313d.
for return of bar pin containing three large and numerous small diamonds, lost August 18th. between 27th and Edgemers, L. I. BLACK, STARR & FROST, 5th av. and 48th st. $3,000 REWARD.

Wearing Apparel. LOST-Sable neckplees, white fur lining, Thursday, vicinity McAlpin Hotel; reward, Write Fiff, LING MILL FARM, East Hamp-ton, L. I. LOST-On Fordham road, August 21, brown roa, centaining clothing. Reward. Phone Cheisea 8914.

POUND-Broken watch chain, knife and cigar cutter, Long Island train. Apply room 1508, 50 East 42d st.

ENGAGED.

boy, N. J. No cards

WEET-LEAVCRAFT.-Mr. and Mrs. Frank

E. Leaycraft of South Nyack, New York, announce the engagement of their daughter Heien to Clayton Bagshaw Wood of New York city, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs.
William D. Bagshaw of Newhurgh, New York Mr. Wood is a randuate of Hamilton College, class of 1917 and is a member of the Fel Upsilon Frateralty.

MARRIED.

COPPINGER-TRAVERS.—On August 24, at St. Vincent Ferrers, New York, by the Rev. M. A. Sheehan, Elizabeth F. Travers and Robert E. Coppinger. GILLESTIE—HARRIS.—Dr. and Mrs. James E. Harris announce the marriage of their daughter Ruth to Mr. Robert B. Gillestie.

DIED.

Abearn, James W.
Althelmer, Fred
Andrews, Joseph S.
Barbaur, William R.
Bettman, David
Booth, Elenberh E. T.
Bulkley, Charies
Gammann, Henry J.
Tsickenson, Louise
Engel, Kath
Fronces, William S.
Gillespie, Mary A. W.
Britishd, Cornella C.
Haydon Charles H.
Howard, Maria M.
Howard, Maria M.

In Memorium.

James D.
Karham
James D.
Kartin, James T.
Strause, Mabel
Thompson, Ernest.
Vandarbilt, William E.
Wilder, Mary F.
Howard, Maria M.
Younker, Herman

In Memorium.

ALTHEIMER.—On August 22, Fred, the lost son of Max Altheimer, Funeral from 127 West 116th st. Wednesday, I P. M. Members of Society Third (Regular) Division, A. E. P., pleass attend. ANDREWS.—Joseph S. aged 70, at Edge-mere, L. L. August 24. Time and place of service later. Memphis papers please copy.

BETTMAN.—David, beloved husband of fea and father of Rowland D. and Harold D. 72 years of age. Notice of funeral hereafter.

BOYD.—On Tresday, Aug. 24, 1920, Allan Stuart Boyd, son of the late John Scott Boyd, Interment at Albany, N. Y. BULKLEY.—Charles. The Funeral Church Broadway, 66th st., Wednesday, 10 A. M

Broadway, 66th st., Wednesday, 10 A. M.
CAMMANN.—August 24, at Hotel Wentworth,
59 West 46th st., New York city, Henry
J. Cammann, in his 83th year. Puneral service at St. Thomas's Church, 5th av.
and 55d st., on Friday, August 27, at 11
A. M. Interment private.

DICKENSON.—On Sunday, August 22, 1920, at her residence, 8616 121st st., that was formerly 150 Spruce. Richmond Hull, N. Y., Louise, beloved wife of Thomas Dickenson, and mother of Vivian and Arthur R. Finneral services Wednesday, August 23, 1920, at 8 P. M. Interment Maple Grove Centetery, Thursday, 2 P. M. Relatives and friends respectfully invited.

ENGEL.—On Monday, August 23, Kath, fe-

ERNST Susan Leerburger, wife of Morris L. Ernst and daughter Relle Leerburger, in her 30th year, on Tuesday, August 24, 1920. Funeral at the convenience of family. Kindly omit flowers.

family. Kindly oralt flowers, FLORENCIE.—On August 22, 1920, at his residence, 656 West 160th st., William Steel Florence, M. D., husband of Elsis Harris and son of the late William A. and Amie Ste d Florence. Funeral services at the Chapel of the Intercension on August Lat 10 A. M. Interment private. Macon (Ga.) papers please copy.

terment Cypress Hills Cemetery, Brooklyn.

HATFIELD.—At Sharon, Conn., Mondey,
Aug. 23, Cornella Colrate Hatfield, are 15, years, beloved wife of Abraham Hatfield, Funeral service and interment private, at Sleepy Hollow.

HAYDEN.—On Monday, Aug. 23, Charles
Halleck Hayden, son of the late Peter Hayden, in his 54th year, at his residence, Thousand Islands, Alexandria Bay, Services Haydon's Islands, Wednesday, August 25, at 3 P. M. Interment Columbus, Onto.

JOHNSON.-Harriet Louise, on August 10 1920, beloved mother of Helen Louise Hogert and Arthur Howell Johnson, Services Wedneddy afternoon Shore-lands, Sound Beach, Conn.

Isnils, Sound Beach, Conn.

KNIFFIN.—At Westfield, N. J., on Sunday,
August 22, 1920, Sidney L. Kniffin. Paneral services at his late residence, 148
South Euclid av., Westfield, N. J., on Wednesday, August 25, 1920, at 2:15 P. M.
Autos will meet train leaving New York
1 P. M., foot of Liberty at., Central Radroad of New Jersey.

LEECH.—On August 24 Martin, husband of Elizabeth Leech and father of Mrs. George Gould. Funeral from his late residence, 104 East 112th st., on Friday, August 27, at 9:30 A. M., thonce to St. Cecilia's Church, where a solemn high mass of requiem will be offered. Interment Calvary.

Aug. 27.

McCARTHY.—Suddenly, on August 23. Margaret McCarthy. Funeral from parlors of James E. McLarney & Son. Levington av. and 65th st. Thursday, August 26. Requiem mass St. Vincent Ferrer's Chuch. at 9:30 A. M.

quiem mass st. vince at 9:30 A. M.
McLOUCHLIN.—At her residence, 778 19th av., on Sunday, August 22, Mary, wife of late Michael McLoughlin. Funeral Trairiday, 9:30 A. M. Requiem mass at H.
Ambrose Church, West 54th st.

MUNRO.—On Saturday, August 21, 1920, st Highmount, N. Y., John Munro, beloved bushand of Matilda Walker. Funeral services at Highmount, 11 A. M., Tuesday, Will leave Elicer's Funeral Parlora, 750
Carroll st., Brooklyn, Wednesday, 25th,
10 A. M. sharp. Interment at Greenwood
Cemetery.

STRAUSE.—On Tuesday, August 24, Mabsl. beloved wife of David Strauss, in her 33d year. Funeral services Thursday, August 25, 8 P. M., at E. H. Crane's Funeral Parlors, 140 West 36th st. Interment private Friday A. M.

ment private Friday A. M.
THOMPSON.—Ernest. The Funeral Church.
Broadway and 66th st., Wednesday, S.B. M.
VANDERHILLT.—Private services for the late William Kiesam Vanderbilt, for relatives and intimate friends only, will be held at his late residence in this city, Thursday, afternoon, August 26, at 2:30 o'clock.
WALSH.—On August 24, William Walsh, Fineral from pariors of James E. McLaraw
& Son, Lexington av. and 65th st., Friday,
August 27, at 2 P. M.
WILDER.—Mary Field, wife of Henry L.

IN MEMORIAM.

ENGLE. In loving memory of Kate Duryen, Engle, died August 25, 1918. LEVY -Marshall T. In loving memory of my beloved husband and our father, who departed this life August 25, 1919. Oons, but not forgotten. Ells, Minnie, Augusta, Georgia and Hortense.

EARLE-In loving memory of William Fine Earle, August 25, 1914.

WILLCOX.-In ead but loving memory of Stannard Anderson Willcox, only child of Henry C. and Lucille M. Willoox, the died August 25, 1916.

Biddeford, Me., Aurust 24, in the did year of his age. Notice of funeral hura-after. Denver papers please copy.

hereafter.

BOOTH On Auc. 23, at Englewood, N. J.,

Elizabeth Burr Thorne, wife of Fisher
Howe Booth and daughter of the late Charles E. and Harriet A. Thorne of Auburn, N. Y. Hervices at her late reddence on Wednesday, Aug. 25, at 1878
F. M. Interment at Auburn, N. Y.

Thursday morning.

ENGEL.—On Monday, August 23, Kath, is-loved mother of Joseph Engel, Mary Granath, Tilly Kopp, Lena Feierstein and Anna Simmons, at the home of her daughter, in Cleveland, Ohlo, Funeral Tuseday, August 24, strictly private.

Gla.) papers please copy.

Glil.J.ESPIE.—Many A., Wells, daughter of the late John H. Viells and widow of Charles Henry Gillespie, August 24, 1920, at her summer home, 106 2d ax., Belmar, N. J. Funeral from her summer residence on Thursday, August 23, at 4:30 P. M. daterment Cypress Hills Cemetery, Brooklyn.

Ohio.

HOWARD.—On Monday, August 23, 1920, Maria Margaret Howard, beloved wife of the late John C. Howard, Mastar, U. S. N., and mother of Paul F. Howard, U. S. N., and mother of Paul F. Howard, U. S. M. C. Funeral from her late residence, Fol 13th st., Brooklyn, N. Y., at 9 A. M., August 25, Intermential St. Raymond's Cemetery.

JACOBS.—Abraham, husband of Beckie Jacobs and father of Mrs. C. E. Dunn Hakel and Ell Jacobs, at Beth Israel Hoppital, August 24, in his 65d year, formerly of 63 Canal at Funeral from his late home, 114 Division st., Wednesday, August 25, at 1:30 P. M. Interment at Washington Cometery.

JOHNSON.—Harriet Louise, on August 25, ment Calvary.

MAGNUS.—On Aug. 24, Henrietta (nee Rosenberg), widow of Henry J., and devoted mother of Sol W., Stella Strauss, Max. Walter, Jeannette Loeb and Bella Geodman. Funeral private, from late residence, 393 Edgecombe av., on Friday, Aug. 27.

ton, S. C., paners please copy.

SHEI/HARD.—On August 24, 1920, Annie Shephard, in her 78th year, beloved wifts of James A. Shephard. Mass at St. Malachy's Church. Van Sickien av., os Thursday, August 25.

SMITH.—Commodore James T., U. S. M., suddenly, at residence of his son, Skyring Thorne Smith, 15 Watkins at., New Rechelle. Services 9 A. M. Wednesday at residence. Interment Annapolis, Md., Wednesday at fermeon.

4 Son. Lexington av. and 65th st., Friday.
August 27, at 2 F. M.
Wilder, M. D. and dauchter of the late.
Charles Augustus Briggs, at her home.
In Burlington, Vt., Aug. 22, 1920. Funeral from her late home, Wednesday afterpoon, 2:30.
YOUNKER.—Herman, aged 66, after a small illness, at the Lenox Hill Hospital, and is survived by his wife, Julia Marks Younker and his son, Ira M. Younker. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 1:30 P.
M. at his late residence, 27 East Edd in,
New York city.

Cemetery.

SADILER.—At Saranac Lake, New York,
August 23, in the 21d year of her age,
Kathai ine McIntosh, daughter of Florence Hazeline Blackwell and the late Houstoun McIntosh Sadler. Funeral from her late residence, 449 West 133d st.,
Thursday morning at 16 o'clock. Charledton, S. C., papers please copy.

NIMMO.—In loving memory of my darling, sainted nother, Janet Nimmo, who went to Paradise August 25, 1903. Worthy, are you alone, Mother dear, that sitted on the throne of God above. Devoted daugh-ter, Anna.